This exquisite residence combines luxury, the vibrancy of New York City and the elegance of the Park Avenue lifestyle. The 3,328-square-foot, 3-bedroom, 3-and-a-half-bath home features light-filled, spacious rooms and access to over 1,000 square feet of private outdoor space. Both the generous entertaining space and the grand terrace have panoramic views of Central Park and the Upper East Side skyline. The kitchen is outfitted with the finest appliances, from Wolf ovens and a Bertazzoni range to a Sub-Zero refrigerator, wine cooler and Bosch dishwasher. The master suite has a south facing terrace, an enormous walk-in closet and a master bath with a walk-in shower, soaking tub, linen closet and separate commode area. Finished with oak herringbone floors, handcrafted plaster moldings, new windows and individually controlled air conditioning and heating units, this residence is the perfect opportunity to indulge on historic Park Avenue.
